Blood Test for Liver Function

Some patients taking Tracleer were found to have abnormal liver function tests. During treatment with Tracleer, your doctor will arrange for regular blood tests to check for changes in your liver function.

→ Remember to have your liver blood test every month. After an increase in dose, an additional test will be done after 2 weeks.

If you have questions about Tracleer ask your doctor.

If you are a woman of childbearing age read this page carefully

Pregnancy

Tracleer may harm the development of the foetus. Therefore, you must not take Tracleer if you are pregnant and you must also not become pregnant while taking Tracleer.

Moreover, if you are suffering from pulmonary hypertension disease, the occurrence of a pregnancy can severely deteriorate the symptoms of your disease. If you suspect you may be pregnant, tell your doctor or gynaecologist.

Contraception

Birth control based on hormones – such as oral contraceptives or birth control pills, hormone injections, implants, or birth control skin patches don't reliably prevent pregnancy in women who are taking Tracleer. You need to use a barrier form of birth control – like a condom, diaphragm or vaginal sponge – in addition to any of these kinds of hormonal birth control. Be sure to discuss any questions you may have with your doctor or your gynaecologist – complete the details on the back of this card and take it to your doctor or gynaecologist at your next visit.

You should have a pregnancy test before initiation of Tracleer and every month during the treatment even if you think that you are not pregnant.
